Dear Administrator,

The Michigan Music Conference would like to extend a warm invitation to your music teacher to attend our upcoming conference. Pre-Conference events are offered on Thursday, January 21st, with general conference programming on Friday, January 22nd and Saturday, January 23rd at the Amway Grand Plaza Hotel, DeVos Place, and JW Marriott in Grand Rapids, Michigan. We believe that this conference will be an excellent opportunity for your music teacher to receive rich professional development that can benefit both them and their students.

The Michigan Music Conference is one of the largest music education events in the state of Michigan. Over the course of three days, attendees will have the opportunity to attend workshops, sessions and performances led by some of the most respected music educators in the country. These workshops and sessions cover a wide range of topics related to music education, including teaching methodologies, classroom management, technology in music education and much more.

As an education administrator, you know better than anyone the important role that music education plays in the development of young minds. Attending the Michigan Music Conference will give your music teachers the tools and knowledge they need to provide high-quality instruction to your students. The conference will also provide a valuable opportunity for your teachers to network with other music educators and share best practices. Additionally, attending the Michigan Music Conference demonstrates your school's commitment to ongoing professional development. This investment sends a powerful message to parents, students, and the wider community that you value and support music education as an important part of a well-rounded education.

In conclusion, we would like to strongly encourage your music teachers to attend the Michigan Music Conference. We believe that this conference will be an invaluable opportunity for your teachers to improve their skills and knowledge in music education and to provide a better learning experience for your students.

Thank you for your consideration, and we hope to see your music teacher at the conference.

Sincerely,

Jim VanEizenga	Bill Vliek	Garret Ernst	Brian Leduc
